

Release Notes

v9.7.0.0 (June 20, 2017)

- fix: an error could occur when installing on certain setups with large amounts of system memory
- fix: trying to login with an inexistent user name now gives proper error message
- fix: an error occurring in the evaluation trend report in some cases
- feature: removed the automatic PBX detection function
- fix: Jtapi trace levels checkboxes now display properly
- feature: text-only answers are displayed in the compare scores report
- feature: score will be displayed as percentage over the graphs in the compare scores report
- fix: error when accessing the replay calls page in some cases

v9.6.0.7 (May 10, 2017)

- feature: Callreplay can be installed in 32 or 64 bit mode, greatly improving performance and addressing memory allocation issues
- feature: the permissions on replay calls rights has been reworked (the replay permission on a folder will grant rights on all children of that folder)
- fix: a flash bug duplicated some buttons when filling questionnaires
- fix: rounding mismatch between quality reports

v9.5.0.0 (March 14, 2017)

- feature: sending account info to new users no longer required when using LDAP accounts
- fix: account information e-mail now contain the password and PIN in clear text
- change: Channel Pool renamed to License Pool
- change: filter duration in the Replay Calls page changed from milliseconds to seconds
- fix: rare migration error
- fix: decrypting a call for a second time within a session
- fix: rare case where unanswered outgoing SIP calls would appear as 1 hour empty recordings

v9.4.0.0 (February 9, 2017)

- fix: send mail from mail services
- fix: Login and Replay Own Calls permission
- fix: CallerID not visible in Replay Calls page
- fix: after restarting Call Manager or temporary losing connection to it, CallReplay will no longer give up attempting to reconnect

v9.2.0.0 (December 12, 2016)

- fix: potential user migration issue when migrating from version 8
- fix: https server issue on certain configurations
- fix: branch licensing error on certain conditions
- fix: long startup time due to log uploader
- fix: notification message is now shown if logged user tries to view calls on a category for which permission is not given

v9.0.0.55 (September 23, 2016)

- fix: recorder doesn't start if Jetty debug log is enabled

v9.0.0.54 (August 17, 2016)

- fix: recorded calls shown in purple with no duration
- upgrade Memolith logs
- upgrade BlazeDS to v4.7.2

v9.0.0.40 (May 31, 2016)

- fix: Do Not Record phone service option
- fix: migration from v8 results in no calls visible in the UI
- fix: email notification from external to internal
- fix: call licensing doesn't show correct number of channels
- fix: CallReplay tries to contact Oracle IP, doesn't start without an Internet connection
- fix: permissions for categories
- fix: unlicensed calls shown by default
- fix: error #1010 when clicking the permissions tab
- fix: import reserved channels

v9.0.0.20 (April 22, 2016)

- first release of CallReplay v9
- new, revamped interface
- new feature: Unified Configuration for users, permissions, email, recording policy
- new feature: Dashboard
- new feature: integration with Screen Recorder (Memolith)